

2017 Australia Day Sports Carnival

We encourage community sporting groups and clubs to hold a competition or event on or around Australia Day, 26 January to contribute to Australia Day celebrations throughout the Northern Territory.

This program is free to participate in and offers your club an opportunity to promote your programs and encourage new members.

By registering you will receive FREE advertisement of your event in the NT News and the Australia Day Council website along with a minted Australia Day sports medallion which can be used as a trophy at your event.

Please complete and return the below form to register.
